FRONTIERA LETTO-LITUANA (1).

I.

CONVENTION
CONCLUDED BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS
OF LATVIA AND LITHUANIA

In respect of Arbitration on questions concerning the frontiers, which was ratified on October 12, 1920, by the Constituent Assembly of Latvia, and on October 8, 1920, by the Constituent Assembly of Lithuania.

1) The two Governments concerned have agreed to entrust the final decision respecting the disputed portions of the frontier-line between their respective territories, as well as the settlement of all questions arising from this decision, to a Mixed Commission consisting of two members appointed by each of the two Governments, and of a President. The latter shall be the British Commissioner, or if he is unable to act, a British subject approved of by both Parties.

2) As far as possible, all matters which, in conformity with the terms of the aforementioned Convention are to be decided by this Commission, shall be settled by mutual agreement between the representatives of the two countries.

(1) Anche la frontiera letto-lituana dette luogo a dissensi, onde i due Stati decisero, con la convenzione di arbitrato, firmata a Riga il 28 settembre 1920 (n. 1) di far risolvere la contestazione da una Commissione arbitrale, presieduta dal prof. J. Y. Simpson, dell'Università di Edimburgo. La decisione (20 marzo 1921), come era stato convenuto, fu accolta dalle due Parti contraenti (cfr. n. 2).
