

road about 600 to 300 metres from it, leaving to Latvia: Rudula and to Lithuania Novogroedek. At a point about 500 n. s. w. of Strela the line bends north and reaches the old governmental frontier in a straight line leaving to Lithuania Strela and Rengi and to Latvia Vilkala, Leshiki and Sipini.

Thereafter the frontier follows the old governmental line (with the exception of the village of Budkuny which is ceded to Lithuania) to the point of intersection of this line with the common frontier of the land of Gut Glebov and village Jukniszki, where it passes in a gradual south-easterly slope following this frontier, leaving point « V. W. » s. w. of Glebov, E. or W. of the line according to the nationality of its owner, proceeds S. E. bordering the land of the following properties in Latvia: « zu Juknisziki », « zu Wytejki », v. w. Vytejki, Judishky, v. w. Giedeskany, Libiedzie, and Stogieliszki, and of the following in Lithuania: v. w. Majszele, Blodniki, Giedejskany, Makraszuny, Noteiki and Leel-Plane. Thereafter it curves in a north-easterly direction to meet the river Musha to the north of Kamarde, leaving the following places and their territory in Latvia: Gut Pogranicze, Krewgalu, Birsgale, Milscuny, Bebru and v. w. south of Bruklanie; and the following places and their territory in Lithuania: Shumila, v. w. Podziuny, v. w. Lawiszki, Straupeli, v. w. Lampari, Uszisky, v. w. Celmy and Gut Mamarde.

Thereafter the frontier follow the river in a southerly direction to a point south of Wimbas and opposite Bajorele whence it moves east along the common frontier of «Bimbu» Gut Szyling-Pomusz (1) and joins the river Skariza south of Perffoni. Thereafter it leaves the river north of Pazeraukste and bending east and north goes to join the river Memel (Niemunek), leaving the following places in Latvia: Bimbu, Bujwiany, Podzie, Perkuniszky, Tunkuny, « v. w. Kare-

---

(1) Krug Bimbu to remain in Latvia of this territory belongs to Bimbu- if it belongs to Gut Sciling-Pomush, Krug Bimbu remains in Lithuania.